IN THE COURT OF APPEAL OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA
THIRD APPELLATE DISTRICT
(Sacramento)

THE PEOPLE,

Plaintiff and Respondent,

v.

CHRISTOPHER WILLIAMS,

Defendant and Appellant.

C059617

(Super. Ct. No.
07F10523)

Following the denial of defendant Christopher Williams' motion to suppress evidence, he entered into a negotiated settlement whereby he pleaded no contest to possession of cocaine base for sale and admitted a prior strike conviction and service of a prior prison term.

At sentencing, the court denied his motion to strike the prior conviction but dismissed the prior prison term allegation. The court imposed a six-year prison term, consisting of the lower term of three years, doubled because of the strike, and imposed restitution fines of $1,200 in accordance with Penal Code sections 1202.4 and 1202.45.

FACTS

Officers investigating drug activity conducted a parole search of defendant and discovered a baggie of cocaine base in his pocket.

We appointed counsel to represent defendant on appeal. Counsel filed an opening brief that sets forth the facts of the case and requests this court to review the record and determine whether there are any arguable issues on appeal. (People v. Wende (1979) 25 Cal.3d 436.) Defendant was advised by counsel of the right to file a supplemental brief within 30 days of the date of filing of the opening brief. More than 30 days elapsed, and we received no communication from defendant. Having undertaken an examination of the entire record, we find no arguable error that would result in a disposition more favorable to defendant.

DISPOSITION

The judgment is affirmed.
